ERASMUS+ | WORK PLACEMENT

Our Experience in Seville

Language course • Internship • Spanish culture

Manuel Schmittner & Ben Göbel

Where We Went

Three places we explored during our stay in Andalusia

- Seville – our main base and the place where we lived and worked
- Cádiz – a coastal city with beaches and a relaxed atmosphere
- Málaga – a lively city by the Mediterranean Sea

Our Work Experience

One week of language training and two weeks of practical experience

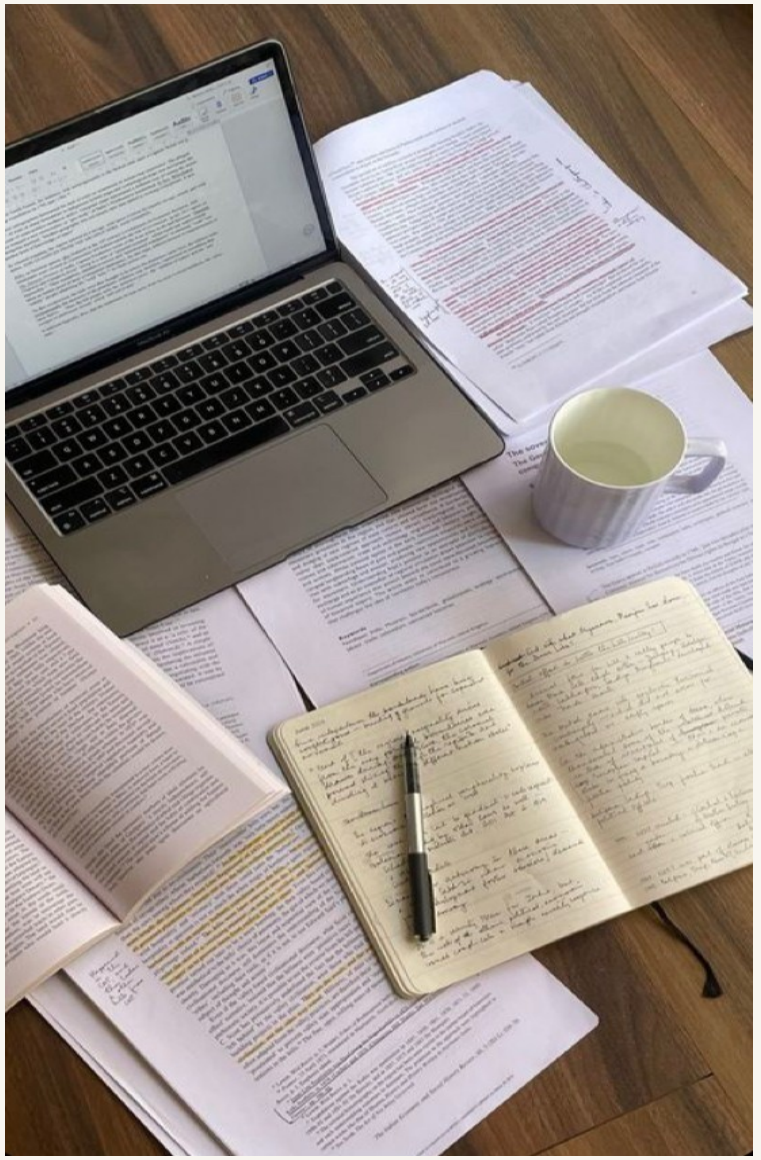

- Week 1: Business English language course
- Weeks 2–3: Internship at a Spanish vocational school
- We experienced a different working and learning environment
- We practised communication in an international setting

What We Learned

Skills we can use in our future careers

- Communicating more confidently in English
- Using business vocabulary in practical situations
- Working with people from another culture
- Becoming more independent and adaptable
- Solving problems in unfamiliar situations

Aschaffenburg vs. Seville

A comparison of everyday life in Germany and southern Spain

ASCHAFFENBURG

- Generally cooler, more seasonal weather
- Everyday life often feels structured and punctual
- Costs depend on housing, transport and lifestyle
- German language and local traditions

SEVILLE

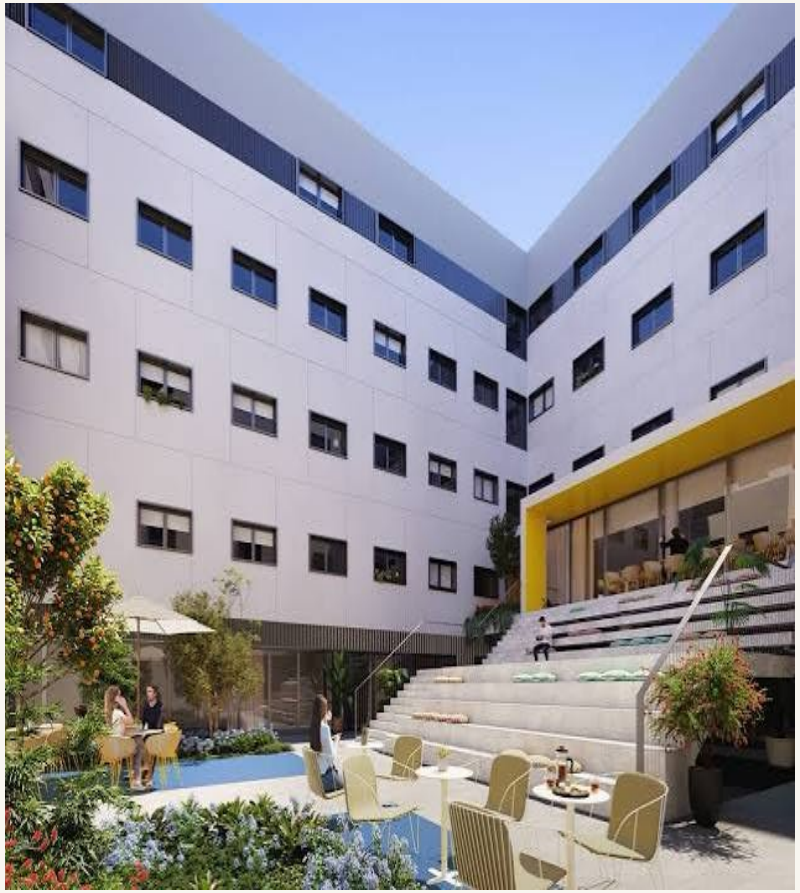

- Hotter summers and a milder winter
- Outdoor life, plazas and late evening activity
- Some everyday costs may be lower, but it varies
- Spanish language, tapas and Andalusian traditions

Our personal experience may differ from these general comparisons.

Our Accommodation

Where we stayed and what everyday life was like

- We lived in Seville during our stay
- We shared everyday routines away from home
- We learned to organise our time and responsibilities

Our Favourite Food

A taste of Spanish food and local specialities

- Tapas – small dishes to share
- Churros with chocolate – a popular sweet treat
- Tacos

Conclusion

What we take home from this experience

- We improved our language and communication skills
- We gained insight into Spanish education and culture
- We became more independent and open-minded
- We made memories that will stay with us
